Large Chip of Wool.—Mr. T. J. Baker of new Molmore informs us that his wool clip, this year, amounted to some 3,800 lbs., which realized him over $1,700.

A Grand Pic-Nic comes off at Green Springs, to-morrow, (Saturday.)

Don't fail, reader, if you are young and susceptible, to read the story on the outside of today's paper. It is a good one.

Mrs. Ellis, of Pittsburgh, lectured at the Methodist Protestant church, on Sunday evening, on subjection, Temperance, and Education.

Sons of Malta.—We learn that steps are being taken for organizing a Lodge of the Sons of Malta in this place. Look out for the mid-night appearance.

During the conflagration of Canton caused by the bombardment of the British, the extensive medical warehouse of our countryman Dr. G. C. Miller, located on the site of the Chevy Festival and Catholic Pillar, for China was totally destroyed. He now makes a home upon our government for identity from the loss of his property, and hence will again another to erect with our elder brother Johnny. Stick to it Doctor, and if our Government maintains our rights wherever your efforts may be, we shall only be protected on trusts that are very barren.—Reformer, TARENTON, N. J.

A Duel.—Two chivalrous sons of Erin, clerks in Tiffin, last week had a quarrel about a girl, and concluded to settle it "on the spot" or no spot. A challenge was given, and accepted. Swords and surplices accompanied the combatants to the county Fair Grounds at 4 o'clock in the morning, where ten paces were measured off. The combatants took their places, and at the word two pistols fired. Both men were slightly wounded.—The combatants took hands, declaring themselves satisfied. We have heard the parties had all been arrested. Whoopar for Tiffin.—Prairie Journal.

NEIGHBORING COUNTY NEWS.

SANDUSKY.

Mr. CHARLES M. FOULKE, late foreman of the Journal office, has taken charge of the Croghan House in Fremont.

HOMES.

—BOSTON.—Abraham says that the clothing store of John Hall, merchant tailor, at that place was robbed, on Thursday night of last week, to the amount of $100.

From the same paper we learn that Miss Emily Green, daughter of Mr. Wm. Green of Plankton, aged about sixteen, was very ladly burned, on Monday week, by her clothes catching fire.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The new Iron Suspension Bridge, across the mouth of Rock Creek, is nearly completed. It is a fine structure.

Mr. U. B. Flanner has enlarged and remodeled his residence, on the corner of Market and Monroe streets.

Meers, L. M. Miller are putting up a neat brick residence, east of Rock Creek, on Liberty street.

DISTRICT COURT commenced in this place on Monday and will sit on Thursday, Judge Stillif of the Supreme Bench presiding, assisted by Judges Sonney, Whitley and Plant.

The Advertiser speaks favorably of Green Springs, as a place of healthful resort, every word of which we endorse. If some enterprising man would purchase these springs and lay out the grounds, we guarantee that who would attract hosts of visitors during the summer season.
